Affliction is born, normal, and universal proposition. Everyone grieves: against people weâ€™ve mazed, lifespan changes, ecological crises, honest-to-goodness traumas, transmissible suffering, biotic community challenges, experiences of alienation, dashing hopes, and existential concerns. We may find ourselves sorrowing as a event of death, unwellness or harm, disconnection, disaffection or heartache, poorness, racism, or political turmoil. The causations of sorrow area illimitable, akin nature, and accurate as inconceivable to augur or controller.
