They didn't aim at to end game British ruler, or level repossess their families' dry land. Rather, armed with blunderbusses and an intimate knowledge of Mayo's mountains, bogs and rivers, these outlaws secondhand surprisal and force to reappropriate the affluence of Ireland's British landlords. Wish England's Robin Hood ahead them, they robbed the deep and gave to the pitiful. Irish legends before long highly-developed some their violence, cleverness and generosity.
